COMMON QUESTIONS

What is an IRA?

An IRA is an Individual Retirement Account that allows you to save for retirement while providing some tax advantages. We offer Traditional and Roth IRAs and require $50 to open a Share IRA or $500 to open a Certificate IRA or ESA (Educational Savings Account).

Traditional or Roth – What's the Difference?

There are many differences between Traditional and Roth IRAs. They each offer different tax advantages, withdrawal restrictions and distribution requirements. To find out which one is right for you, speak with a Relationship Navigator. We are happy to review your IRA options and offer a solution that fits your financial situation.

IRA BENEFITS

-  Earns dividends to increase your IRA savings
-  Offers tax advantages*
-  Allows for direct transfers & rollovers
-  Federally insured by NCUA

*Not intended as tax advice. Consult a tax professional.

IRA OPTIONS

IRA Quarterly Share

Traditional or Roth. Open for as little as $50 and start saving for your future!

IRA Certificate

Traditional or Roth. $500 minimum balance to open. An IRA Certificate allows you to lock in your interest rate throughout the term. Terms available: 6, 12, 24, 36, 48 or 60 months.

 For current rates, visit eacu.org or ask a Relationship Navigator.

YOU'VE GOT OPTIONS

We offer the following types of mortgage loans:

- 10-year balloon
- 15-year fixed-rate
- 20-year fixed-rate
- 30-year fixed-rate
- 40-year fixed-rate
- Bi-weekly mortgages
- Construction loans
- Vacant land loans
- Reverse mortgages

Once we become familiar with your situation, we can recommend a solution that is right for you!

-  Low fees and closing costs
-  Fast decision process
-  Multiple payment options

GETTING STARTED

Before you apply, gather the following information to save some time:

- W-2 from previous year
- Most recent paycheck stub
- List of employer(s) for last two years (including contact information and dates employed)
- Copy of your last credit union/bank statement
- Recent 401(k), TESP/SSIP, stock or mutual fund statements
- If self-employed, last two years' 1040s and /or appropriate business tax returns, profit and loss statement and balance sheet signed by accountant
- Address and account number for present mortgage holder, landlord or land contract holder for last two years

NOTE: Other items are required for vacant land loans, construction loans and refinance loans. Contact a Relationship Navigator for a list of these items.

Once we have all the information we need, you could be pre-approved in just a matter of hours! The entire process is fast, easy and hassle free because, let's face it, the last thing you need is a delay.
