

Community Reinvestment Grants – Increasing Your Impact

The Michigan Credit Union Foundation can help you address community problems, create sustainable solutions, and increase the impact of your community reinvestment, financial education initiatives, and partnerships.

Stronger Communities Through Credit Union Initiatives – 2016 Grants Awarded

Allegan Community FCU

Creating a New Year's Financial Resolution program with incentives and financial counseling.

Alpena Community CU

Money management books and broadcasted financial education sessions in partnership with Michigan State University Extension.

Community Promise FCU

Implementing a Second Chance Alternative Checking program with credit builder financial counseling.

Flint Chapter of Credit Unions

Installing Little Free Libraries to distribute books and financial education materials throughout the community.

FreeStar Financial CU

Enhancements to expand their Mad City Money experiential financial education program.

Gerber FCU

Financial education books and materials to enhance youth and school presentations during Money Smart Week.

HarborLight CU

Enhancing and expanding their student-run credit union program.

Kent County CU

Starting a student-run credit union program.

Michigan State University FCU

Implementing a partnership education program that combines the Junior Achievement Personal Finance course with Financial REALity Fairs.

North Central Area CU

Enhancements to their student-run credit union program in four school branches.

SB Community FCU

Installing a Little Free Library for community members with financial education materials.

Wanigas CU

Launching a home purchase and neighborhood rehabilitation program with financial counseling.

Washtenaw Federal CU

Expanding their youth programs and financial education outreach activities with the Member Jr. app.

Grants for Financial REALity Fairs and Route Your Retirement Fairs

Alpena Alcona Area CU
Community Choice CU
First General CU
Limestone Federal CU
LOC FCU
Michigan Schools and Government CU
Upper Peninsula Chapter of Credit Unions

Doing More of What Credit Unions Do Best!

Funded by cooperative donations, these grant activities increase the impact and awareness of the credit union difference in Michigan, helping all credit unions thrive.

Learn more, donate or apply for programs at MCUF.MCUL.org