

Attention: Credit Union Professionals

The Capitol Area Chapter invites all Michigan Chapters to attend the following education event:

Active Violence Training

April 29, 2026

This training session is designed to help employees recognize, respond to, and stay safe during an Active Violence Incident. Participants will learn how to identify potential warning signs, increase situational awareness, and understand practical response strategies during a critical event. The session will also cover steps individuals can take to protect themselves and others, how to react quickly under stress, how to stop the bleed and what to expect during an emergency response. The goal of this training is to build awareness, preparedness, and confidence so employees are better equipped to respond effectively should an emergency occur.

This training is discussion-based and educational. There are no shooting simulations or live-action drills involved.

Facilitated by:

Mike Roman, Chief Grand Lege Fire Department
Scott Brooks, Captain Charlotte Police Department
Paul Brentar, Chief Charlotte Police Department
Paul Creger, Lieutenant Eaton Rapids Police Department
